

Global Trauma Project:
Social Work Intern (Diani, Kenya)
June-November 2021

Global Trauma Project is a dynamic, growing organization dedicated to strengthening resilience and reducing the negative impacts of stress, adversity, trauma, and oppression. We support community-centered healing, empowerment, and transformation. Our process includes training, mentoring, and certifying local leaders to prevent and address the impacts of complex trauma, compounded stress, childhood adversity, and community violence.

We seek a Social Work Intern to be based in Diani Kenya for a 6-month engagement (June – November 2021).

Internship Opportunity:

- Are you committed to strengthening mental health and well-being, particularly in Kenya?
- Are you driven to reduce gender-based violence, chronic stress, and childhood adversity?
- Do you want to work under the supervision of team members that are trauma-informed and social justice oriented?
- Do you want to gain skills that would ensure community providers thrive as they also gain new skills?
- Do you want to be a part of ensuring community providers create deep networks, and lead community-based, mental health initiatives?
- Are you looking to work with teams that have a growth mindset; positive attitude; solid project management skills; flexible, yet values-aligned approach?
- Have you completed your diploma or degree, and reside in either Kwale or Mombasa County?
- Would you like to be part of a team situated in Diani, Kenya?

Responsibilities:

As Social Work Intern, under the direction of the Program Manager; you will support the implementation of a Fellowship Program. Key duties include:

- Supporting supervision of Fellows, both in person and in the field
- Attend participants' community workshops
- Ensure proper Monitoring & Evaluation including collection of data for fellows and participants
- Assist in the preparation of monthly activity reports and weekly progress reports.
